UK-POP public results report

Housing Bill

Closed snapshot generated 08 November 2026, 18:51 GMT

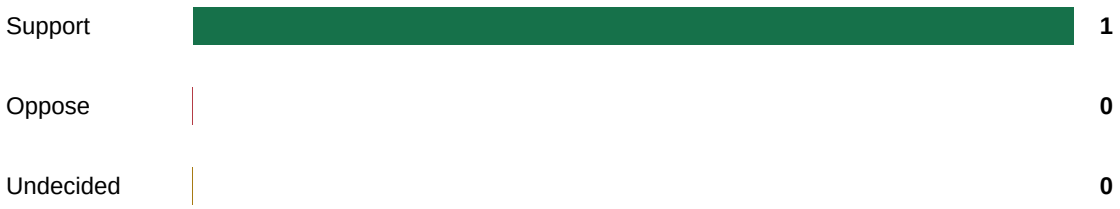

About this Bill

A Bill to establish a target for the annual provision of 150,000 new social homes in England; to require the Secretary of State to report to Parliament on progress in meeting that target; to provide local authorities with further powers relating to social housing, affordable housing, and the right to buy, including to end the right to buy; to make provision for a scheme enabling social housing tenants to acquire equity in their home by virtue of paying rent for that home; to make further provision consequential on that scheme; and for connected purposes.

Status	Withdrawn
Stage	1st reading
House	Commons
Sponsor / department	{'name': 'Gideon Amos', 'house': 'Commons', 'party': 'Liberal Democrat', 'member_id': 5250}

Headline vote

Should Parliament support the Housing Bill?

Amendment results

No.	Question	Support	Oppose	Undecided	Votes
-	No published amendment votes	-	-	-	-

Inter-amendment support trend

The three most active amendments are normalised from their first to latest voting event so differently sized samples can be compared.

Methodology and reuse

Aggregate results only. Cohort: Controlled accounts; authentication assurance varies. Methodology: controlled-current-v2. This report contains no participant identifiers. Results for open polls are live snapshots and may change.

Official Parliamentary source